SUBJECT: OZOLINS, Nikolai

1. Information dated 1 April 1963 indicates that a Western Intelligence Service's interest in Subject was possibly compromised to a Soviet Intelligence Service (RIS) by Helmut ELFE, a former West German Intelligence Service (BND) officer who had been recruited by a Soviet Intelligence Service.

2. According to a report dated 29 November 1956 from a well-informed source who was active in emigre circles and appraised fairly reliable, one Nikolai OZOLINS, who may be identifiable with Subject, represented the Latvian emigre colony at a meeting of the Sao Paulo Committee for the Liberation of Nations Oppressed by Communism (Comite Pro Liberdade das Nacoes Oprimidas pelo Comunismo). [According to the report, this Committee was formed in support of the Hungarian Revolution. It was decided that the Committee should become a permanent council with representatives from all anti-Communist emigre groups; however, the report indicated that group dissensions and personality clashes were evident among its members. There is no further information concerning this Committee.]
